

ALEXANDER

By Rupert Pitten (aged 9)

Alexander is the guide to a perfect life. It teaches you how to control your body. Not to scrunch it up. To have a perfect life you must have a good frame of mind. When you come out of a lesson you would feel brilliant because you are not scrunched and hunched up. Well that is what I think anyway.